Jose's comments on JESSE TORNI

Perceived cultural traits:

One could describe Jesse as not being your stereotypical Finn. Finnish people are often assumed to be very reserved and distant. Jesse, however, is very far from the Finnish stereotype. He has a very friendly and inviting demeanor, and is very open and bold.

Jesse's comments on JOSE TORRES

Perceived cultural traits:

Jose is a very social person with an honest will to help others. He is a trustworthy person and easy to approach. Jose is hardworking and you can expect him to contribute to projects with his best ability.

Jose is not shy to talk about important matters and is strong-willed and determined. He has a curious nature to learn new things and has spontaneous ideas, but also likes to plan things well in advance to be in control.

He has great expectations for others, but sometimes can be turned off if those expectations are not met. In an unfamiliar and public environment he is safe with his words to not hurt peoples feelings.
