

Fake News

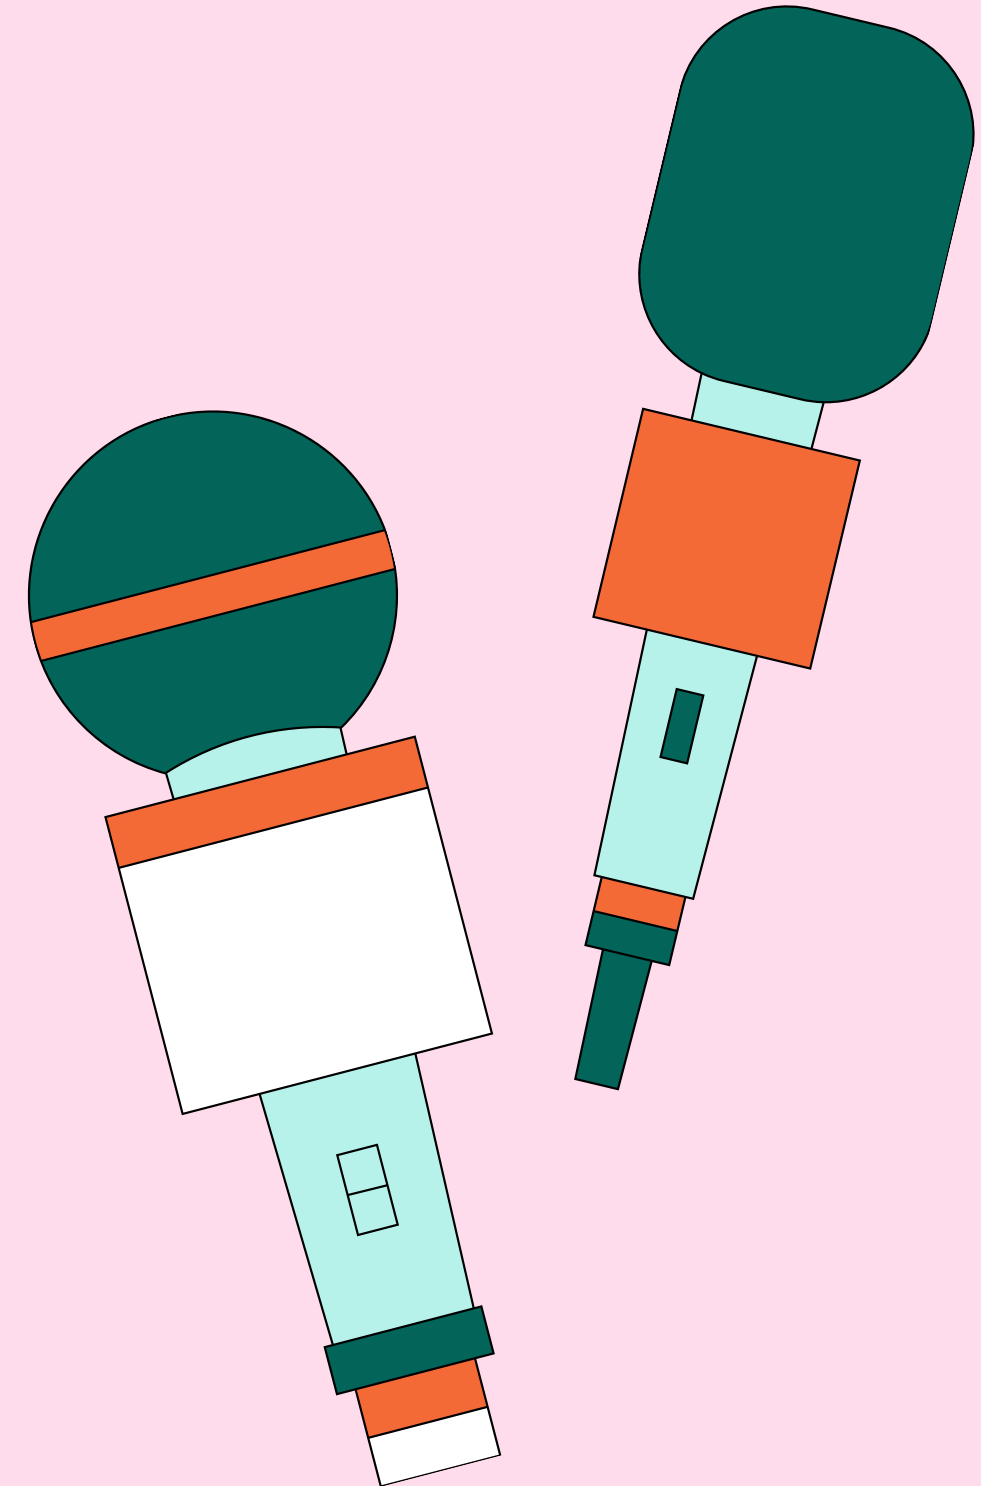

Context

- A couple of weeks ago, a Dana devastated several places from Valencia.
- Since then politicians have act in a very wrong way.
- That region from Spain is governed by the conservative/right political party.
- Noone wany to asume the consequences.

Context

- There are hundreds of fake news to make the actual government of Spain even more unstable.
- This news tries to make the left part assume more responsibility and clean what the right side has done.
- People are reading this news without really informing themselves about the real operation plan that is established in the law.

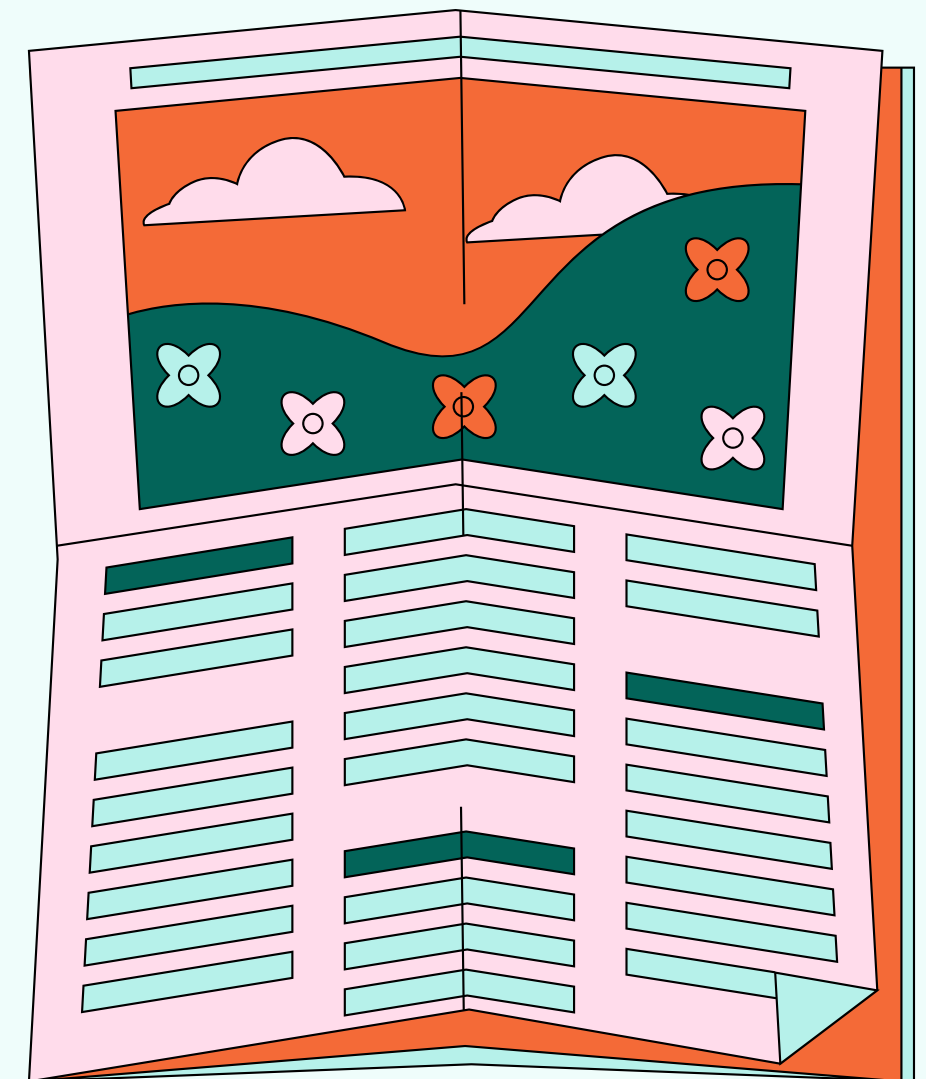

Purpose & Consequences

1

- Make unstable the government of Spain.
- Radicalize people to the right side.
- Make people aware only for some things and not the whole.

2

- People is blaming the central government.
- They want to make this central government to assume most of the guilty.
- Some political party are taking advantage from this situation.
- Now people want to vote to those political party without taking in mind the real ideology intrinsic on them (racism, homophobia, xenophobia...)

Link

- In this video the girl explains really well the real situation and what is really going on.

https://www.instagram.com/reel/DB688cmlv1x/?utm_source=ig_web_copy_link

THE END

by Alizia Mateo

